Floating Discs

Ceiling / Wall Lights

This aesthetic wall fixture brings out the intrinsic beauty found in circle. Simple yet captivating, the unit comprises two sizes of overlying circles connected by a magnetic mounting that enables to position the discs according to preference. Conveniently used as a wall or ceiling light, it reflects delightful aura that highlights the geometric composition. Light Circles can be customized to include one to several discs, making it ideal for illuminating narrow spaces, as well as reception areas, hallways and bedrooms. The discs can be painted in uniform to match the surrounding, or with a single different colored disc to add more flavor.
